Cupertino Library, Library Foundation and BlueLight Cinemas Co-sponsor Globe Cinemas World-renown Shakespeare film series for local community viewing at no charge

OCTOBER 1, 2014 -- CUPERTINO, CA—The Cupertino Library, Library Foundation and BlueLight Cinemas at The Oaks in Cupertino have partnered to sponsor six Globe Shakespeare movies which take place on Thursday evenings November 6th – December 18th 2014.

This is an opportunity for our community to see six of Shakespeare's epic works originally staged at Shakespeare's Globe Theatre with excellent seats at BlueLight Cinemas in Cupertino.

All Shakespeare movie events are free. Reservations are required, as seating is limited to 100.

Please RSVP for each event separately by going to the Cupertino Library Foundation's website: www.cupertinolibraryfoundation.org.

Shakespeare's Globe, in partnership with Arts Alliance Media, bring six of its theatre performances to BlueLight Cinemas this fall, including Broadway smash hit Twelfth Night, the masterpieces Henry V and The Taming of the Shrew. The series also features a trio of supernatural Shakespeare classics: The Tempest, Macbeth and A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Continuing Globe on screen exceptional standard for quality, all six Shakespeare performances have been captured in high definition and will be broadcast in their entirety in pristine digital cinema quality, with full 5.1 surround sound offering audiences the opportunity to experience the world's most famous stage as if they were there in person.

Art Cohen, a new Cupertino Library Foundation board member, and his wife, Jackie, own BlueLightCinemas, and have been generous in hosting non-profit events, as well as corporate events. "We believe we are all in this together to leverage digital technology to keep our community vital," said Cohen.

Shakespeare's Globe artistic director Dominic Dromgoole said: "With the advent of new technology it is now possible to see and hear theatrical productions in the cinema with a wonderful sharpness and clarity. We are delighted that these productions will be finding new audiences, who can experience Globe shows as if they were in the building."

The Cupertino Library operates Monday through Thursday 10AM-9PM; Friday and Saturday, 10AM-6PM; and Sunday, noon-6PM. www.sccl.org
