The Cupertino Library Foundation (CLF) has served the community and its Library well for over two decades. The purpose of CLF is to raise monies and other resources to continue to enrich and enhance life-long learning opportunities for all of its residents.

We are pleased to offer a sponsorship program tailored to various needs and interests of businesses and individuals within our greater Cupertino community. Thank you for your interest. Please formalize your agreement with one of our Board members by filling out the appropriate sponsorship level form, and discussing final arrangements.
