Cupertino Library, the Library Foundation and BlueLight Cinemas Co-sponsor Star Trek Celebrities Live December 11

This generational hit comes to life with actors steeped in epic tradition

NOVEMBER 14, 2014 -- CUPERTINO, CA— The Cupertino Library Foundation, the Cupertino Library, and Bluelight Cinemas have partnered to present video and book highlights from Star Trek-the future and you right here in Cupertino at Blue Light Cinemas on Thursday December 11, 2014 from 6:30-8:30pm.

This is an opportunity for our community to see and talk with three stars deeply embedded in the Star Trek culture. This single night event is free to the community. Reservations are required, as seating is limited to 120. RSVP by going to the Cupertino Library Foundation's website:

www.cupertinolibraryfoundation.org.

Touring artists will bring the book alive. Captain Pike is portrayed by Sean Kennedy, actor, writer, producer and author. Uhura, the woman 'who has gone where no woman has gone before' is portrayed by Nichelle Nichols, who began her show business career at age 16 as a singer with Duke Ellington in a ballet she created for one of his compositions and later sang with his band. Marc Cushman is a WGA screenwriter, a television and film director/producer and as well as author of the highly acclaimed award-winning book series These Are the Voyages, about the making of the original series of Star Trek.

"Children of all ages are fascinated and fanatical about Star Trek," comments Roslyn Donald, supervising Librarian, Adult & Teen Services, Cupertino Library. "We know having the celebrities bring this series alive through their book, video clips and conversation will be a big draw." This is an exclusive engagement in the south Bay Area.

The Cupertino Library operates Monday through Thursday 10AM-9PM; Friday and Saturday, 10AM-6PM; and Sunday, noon-6PM. www.sccl.org
